

Survey Party Chief

Location: Sidney, MT

Position Status: Full-Time

Function: Interstate Engineering, an established Great Plains firm is seeking an ambitious, self-starter to fill an available Survey Party Chief position in our Sidney, Montana, office.

Responsibilities:

- Managing land surveying projects within several industries.
- able to analyses deeds, certificates of survey, and subdivision plats
- knowledge of the Montana PLSS system
- knowledge of the BLM Manual
- Familiar with GLO field notes and plats
- Understanding of construction staking, cadastral, boundary location, ALTA, and topography.
- Ability to operate as a one-person team and manage field assistant, as necessary.
- Organize field staking materials as necessary.
- Provide technical expertise to internal and external clients.
- Competent with Survey Equipment, GPS, and Total Station.
- Complete and maintain accurate data files and field notes.
- Must have experience in supervising, coordinating, and reviewing the work of others.
- Must be able to perform complex tasks that require solutions, skill, and speed beyond typical and conventional methods.
- Maintain productive working relationships with all clients and co-workers.
- Communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work in a team atmosphere are vital.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.

Basic Qualifications:

- Basic knowledge in AutoCAD Civil 3D and Trimble equipment and Software is desired but not required.
- Associates degree in Land Surveying or equivalent years of experience
- Ability to work independently.
- Proficient in written documentation.
- Willingness to travel and work outside.
- Valid driver's license.

Physical Demands:

- Ability to work in adverse weather conditions
- Ability to walk on rugged terrain
- Ability to lift up to 50 pounds
- Some travel required
- Some overtime required

To apply, please visit www.interstateeng.com/careers

CAREERS

About Interstate Engineering:

Interstate Engineering is a multi-state, employee-owned firm providing professional engineering, surveying, planning, and GIS services. We offer competitive compensation based on qualifications and experience. Benefits include vacation, sick leave, group health, disability, dental, vision, term life, retirement, 401(k) plan, and a flexible spending account. Interstate Engineering is owned under an Employee Stock Ownership Plan, which rewards eligible employees for long and loyal service by providing them with retirement benefits.

We are an equal opportunity employer. All applicants will be considered for employment without attention to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, veteran or disability status.